1. The claim is rejected as non-statutory matter under 35 USC 171 as it is not directed to an article of manufacture. The design as claimed and shown in the drawing disclosure is merely a picture or surface ornamentation rather than a design applied to an article. Ex parte Tayama, 24 USPQ2d 1614. Applicant is advised that any supplemental disclosure of an article to which the design might be applied would be new matter under 35 USC 132 and 37 CFR 1.118.
2. The question of restriction under 35 USC 121 is deferred pending resolution of the rejection of the claim under 35 USC 171.
3. No prior art search has been made and the question of patentability under 35 USC 102, 103, and 112 is also deferred pending resolution of the rejection of the claim under 35 USC 171.
4. The claim is rejected.
